95.1 Minutes of previous meeting were read.

95.2 ACTION POINTS

90.7 Sam had printed A4 size copies of the Local Services Directory which looks acceptable, except for problems with page numbering. Sam and Mike will rectify this and go ahead with final printing.

91.3.3 Because there had been no response from within the village to take the old printer, Sam will approach VANL to see if they would like it.

94.3.2 A request had come through the website in an email from Colin Woods for Roxby WI who have an exhibition on 31 October of soldiers who had died in WW1. It was agreed that this could go on our website.

95.3.6 Neighbourhood Watch

Mike had sent an email regarding a white van seen picking up scrap metal without permission. Anyone who sees this happening is asked to contact Mike with the registration number of the van.

95.4 FINANCE

Julia reported that the bank balance remains at £1047 but there is an outstanding cheque for £901 outgoing. Petty cash stands at £50. The quiz made £43 less winners' prizes, so the profit was £27. The books are back from Kim who does not want any recompense, so Julia will send a thank you card.

95.5 CORRESPONDENCE RECEIVED

Sam had received a letter from North Lincs Council explaining that pavements on Walcot Road will be upgraded and details will follow.
