100.1 Minutes of previous meeting were approved as a true record, proposed by Alan, seconded by Sel.

100.2 ACTION POINTS

Mike said the newsletter was being printed and would be delivered shortly. A request was to be put on the website requesting a replacement for Mike as publisher.

Sel said that the club would act as a point to sell 2017 calendars.

100.3 REPORTS

100.3.1 Planning and Development

None.

100.3.2 Website

None.

100.3.3 Newsletter

None, apart from the comment in 100.2, above.

100.3.4 Parish Council

None.

100.3.5 Neighbourhood Watch

None.

100.4 FINANCE

Julia reported the quiz raffle had made £37, which made £26 after winners' prize costs. £300 net had been made in 2015.

The balance stands at £1054 and petty cash at £380.

Calendars had been paid for. 103 had been sold, making £240. £3k had been made from calendars over the years, after donations and costs. Sam expressed thanks to all involved with the calendars.

Sam suggested the finance statement be put on the website, once a year after the audit. Sharon proposed this, seconded by Paul, all in favour.

100.5 CORRESPONDENCE

None.

100.6 SOCIAL EVENTS

Quizzes

12 Feb - Sharon

10 March - Paul

14 April - tba

12 May - tba

Sharon suggested it would be a good time to organise a social event, since we had not had one for some time. Alan suggested a BBQ on the village green to celebrate the renovation at Low Wells. Andrea suggested a fete and stalls, similar to the strawberry fest, which had been held successfully in Whitton last year. It was agreed that this be pursued.

Meetings of the Residents' Association are still down as the 1st Tuesday in the month on notices around the village. Anne agreed to send an email to say it is now the 2nd Tuesday in the month.

100.7 ANY OTHER BUSINESS

None.
